

Pig Personality Quiz

Directions: On a blank piece of paper, draw a pig. Don't look at your neighbors. Don't even glance. The way you draw your pig will indicate some personality traits. If you have a school mascot that can be substituted for the pig you can do so!

Position:

If you drew the pig...

Toward the top of the paper----you are positive and optimistic.

Toward the middle of the paper---you're a realist.

Toward the bottom of the paper---you are pessimistic and have a tendency to behave negatively.

Orientation:

If you drew the pig...

Facing left---you believe in tradition, are friendly and remember dates well (especially birthdays).

Facing forward---you are direct, enjoy playing devil's advocate and don't fear or avoid discussions.

Facing right---you are innovative and active, you don't have a strong sense of family, and you don't remember dates very well.

Detail:

If you drew the pig...

With many details---you are analytical, cautious and distrustful.

With few details---you are emotional, naïve, care little for details and are a risk taker.

With four legs showing---you are stubborn, secure and you stick to your ideals.

With less than four legs showing---you are insecure or living through a period of major change.

Further:

Check the pig...

The size of its ears---indicates how good of a listener you are.

The length of its tail---indicates the quality of your life.
