

What Would You Do?

Introduction: When you work with or for other people, you will have problems from time to time. You have choices on how you will handle these problems.

Directions: Read each of the problems and tell how you would handle them.

Situation 1. You work as a bagger in a grocery store. You see one of the cashiers slip some money in her pocket. What would you do?

Situation 2. You work as a salesperson in a clothing store. One of your friends comes in and you see him slip a tie in his coat pocket. What would you do?

Situation 3. You work in a restaurant as a waitress. Some of your co-workers have stopped talking to you because they feel you are doing too much work. You think you owe it to your employer, but you don't want your co-workers to be mad with you. What would you do?

Situation 4. Your supervisor is giving you all of the dirty jobs to do even though two other employees started in the same position when you did. You have already talked with your supervisor once. What would you do?

Situation 5. You work in a drug store in your neighborhood. Your friends come in frequently and always want to talk with you, which keeps you from doing your work. What will you do?
