

Group Leadership

Introduction: Every group in which we find ourselves involved has members who display certain easily identified types of behavior or leadership styles. The effective group leader learns to utilize each of the different group behaviors or leadership styles to help the group achieve its goals.

Directions: Determine what type of leadership styles our group has; through group discussion, place the names of class members who fit each of the leadership styles listed below:

| |
|---|
| JUMPER  |
| OBSERVER  |
| ANALYZER  |
| DETAILER  |
| CHALLENGER  |
| JOKER  |